It is agreed that the Client shall do no withholding for income, self-employment, payroll or any other taxes. Moreover, nothing in this Agreement grants or authorizes either party to assume or to create any obligation, contract or liability, express or implied, on behalf or in the name of the other. The Client expressly agrees that prior to signing any Third Party Agreements it shall read those agreements carefully and/or consult the services of an attorney if deemed necessary. The Client acknowledges that it shall be bound by the terms and conditions of the Third Party Agreements and it is the Client's responsibility to understand those terms and conditions prior to signing.

4. No Guarantee: Client acknowledges and agrees that Company makes no specific guarantee or warranty regarding the Energy Services which it performs on Client's behalf or related to any of the Company's recommendations, guidance, or advice including but not limited to the guarantee of energy cost savings, future energy market prices, the performance of an energy product or agreement, or any other result.

5. Indemnification: Client agrees to indemnify and hold Company, and its affiliates or subsidiaries and Company's directors, officers, employees, contractors and agents, harmless from any and all liability including claims, judgments, civil penalties, refunds, attorney fees, court costs or lost business that may be made by Client and/or any third party, that is due to or arising out of Client's conduct or a Third Party's conduct. 8. Forward-Looking Statements: Some of Puleo Energy's communications ("Communications") may contain forward-looking statements, including statements regarding trends in commodity prices; demand for commodities; plans, strategies, and objectives of energy price management; anticipated natural gas production or storage numbers; electricity demand; electricity transmission rate tariffs, electricity capacity auction results; and other information not described herein. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of terminology such as 'intend', 'aim', 'project', 'anticipate', 'estimate', 'plan', 'believe', 'expect', 'may', 'should', 'will', 'continue', 'annualized' or similar words. These statements discuss future expectations concerning the results of markets, prices, or financial conditions or provide other forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees or predictions of future performance and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors, many of which are beyond our control, and which may cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the statements contained in the Communications. Readers are cautioned not to put undue reliance on forward-looking statements. For example, future prices for natural gas or electricity communicated in the Communications will be based, in part, upon the market price of production, the total amount of energy supply, and consumer demand, which may vary significantly from current levels. These variations, if materially adverse, may affect the price for either such commodity in the spot or futures markets. Other factors that may affect the actual cost or price of electricity or natural gas include the impact of geopolitical situations; the exportation of liquid natural gas to foreign countries from the U.S.; the price and production of crude oil; and other factors that might not be identified herein. Except as required by applicable regulations or by law, Puleo Energy does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or review any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events. Past market performance cannot be relied on as a guide to future market performance.

All Energy Services performed by the Company for the Client and Third Party Contracts signed by the Client during the term of this Agreement shall be subject to the terms and conditions herein. This Agreement may be canceled at any time by either party by providing written notice to the opposite party via email and/or U.S. mail.

10. Miscellaneous:

a. Governing Law; Consent to Personal Jurisdiction: This Agreement shall be construed and governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, without regard to the conflicts of law provisions of any jurisdiction. Company represents and warrants that he/she is not relying on any statement or representation not contained in this Agreement. To the extent any terms set forth in any exhibit or schedule conflict with the terms set forth in this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall control unless otherwise expressly agreed by the Parties in such exhibit or schedule.

d. Headings: Headings are used in this Agreement for reference only and shall not be considered when interpreting this Agreement.

e. Severability: If a court or other body of competent jurisdiction finds, or the Parties mutually believe, any provision of this Agreement, or portion thereof, to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible so as to effect the intent of the Parties, and the remainder of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect.
